TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP DRAWING TO A CLOSE

McLaughlin the Favorite—Yesterday's Feature Match a Disappointment.
Beckman Wins Title.
Newport, R. I., August 22.—The lawn tennis championship tournament to-day narrowed to San Francisco and Philadelphia with the latter holder, H. E. McLaughlin, an almost prohibitive favorite. The other three victors in the day's matches were E. F. Fottrell, San Francisco, and R. Norris Williams, second, also from San Francisco, Philadelphia.

Fottrell will meet Williams and McLaughlin will play Beckman in the semi-finals to-morrow.

McLaughlin fell before the champion in straight sets last year and Beckman to-night was a favorite over Fottrell, many followers of the game predicted that the match would be a repetition of those of 1913, when McLaughlin found Williams his only opponent for the title and defeated him.

The feature match to-day, that between Williams and Norris Williams, was disappointing, being unusually erratic and Williams defeated him in about an hour. McLaughlin allowed C. Griffin, also from the coast, to take a set in their contest. It was the second time McLaughlin has lost a set since he came to the tournament.

Leonard Beckman, the Columbia University intercollegiate, won the national interscholastic singles title to-day. Beckman by his fine playing and heady play, defeated E. McCormick, Southern California, 6-4, 6-3, 5-7.

PLANK SENT TO COVER

Philadelphia, August 22.—The Athletics winning streak received an abrupt check to-day, when the White Sox defeated them, 8 to 5.

Plank met his doom in the fourth, when determined Chicagoans drove in five runs against the stumbling Plank. Wickoff took his position on the slab, but could not pacify the Sox slingers, who tore three singles off him and scored two more runs.

In the first half of the sixth rain interrupted the onslaught, and the game was called. Score:

He's Right Busy Just Holding On.

INVESTIGATION BEGINS INTO HOP FIELD RIOTS

Federal Industrial Relations Committee Starts Inquiry as to Cause of Fatal Outbreak.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 22.—Investigation of the Hopfield, Cal., riot, which resulted in a fatal outbreak, is being conducted by the Federal Industrial Relations Commission.

Widely circulated reports that testimony gathered by private detectives was used against the convicted men, Fred Schuch and Richard Ford, were denied by W. H. Carlin, who prosecuted them.

George L. Bell, counsel for the California Immigration and Housing Commission, declared the vagrant law was used in California to oppress workers. It was charged that under this law about twenty persons who participated in the Hopfield riot were held without hearings for periods extending in some cases to ninety days.

In this connection, witnesses testified that Alfred Nelson, under arrest as a suspected rioter, was held in the County Jail for 90 days before he was permitted to see counsel. It was alleged.

Alfred Nelson, a suspect, went insane after his release from jail, and Nelson Nelson, another suspect, committed suicide.

FORCED TO SIGN PLEDGE NOT TO FIGHT AGAINST GERMANY

Captain of British Freight Steamer Tells of Experience With German Cruiser.

NEW YORK, August 22.—Captain Evans, of the British freight steamer Drumcliffe, reported on the arrival of his ship today from Buenos Aires and Trinidad that on August 5, on the coast of Brazil, the cruiser Dresden was halted by the German cruiser Dresden and that he was compelled by the Dresden to sign a pledge not to fight against Germany.

Captain Evans said that he had given the pledge only because he feared for the safety of his wife and child, who were on board.

The German boarding party came alongside, he said, with rifles pointed, while the cruiser stood by with her guns trained on the ship. The Germans paraded and the Dresden, after standing near the freighter for nearly four hours, steamed east.

The New York and Porto Rico Line steamer Drumcliffe arrived today from Buenos Aires and Trinidad. The ship was en route to New York and was carrying a cargo of goods.

SHIPPING HURT BY WAR

Trans-Atlantic Liners Sails and None Arrives in New York.

NEW YORK, August 22.—Shipping today felt the effects of the European war to an unusual degree. No trans-Atlantic liner sailed and none arrived.

Two are due tomorrow and one Sunday, and there are nine, all of the international mercantile marine, on their way to America and Canadian ports with 5,000 passengers, most of them Americans.

Headed for New York are two White Star liners, the Adriatic and the Campania, two of the American line, the New York and the Saint Paul, and the Meriton, of the American line, is on her way to Philadelphia, the Canard liner, of the American line, is on her way to Boston, and the Canada, of the Dominion Line, to Quebec and Montreal.

The Hamburg-American liner Graciosa, which is due to arrive in New York today, is being held in New York harbor by British customs, who are waiting for the ship to be cleared for export.

Another German vessel, the Grosz Kurier, of the North German Lloyd line, was reported to be taking on coal at her Hoboken pier today, preparatory to sailing. The line's agents said she intended leaving port.

MUST COMPLY WITH LAW GOVERNING SANITATION

Norfolk Man, Prosecuted by State, Given Thirty Days to Install Plumbing.

Labor Commissioner James B. Dehorner received yesterday from Industrial Inspector J. Edward Clifton, who is now in Norfolk, a report on the case of J. N. Walters, who was prosecuted in that city by the department for failure to comply with the State sanitary law with reference to business establishments.

The case was tried in the Norfolk Police Court Thursday. Walters pleaded not guilty. While the State Department of Labor succeeded in making out a case, extenuating circumstances were shown and Walters was allowed thirty days within which to comply with the law's requirements.

Walters proved to the court and the inspector that when he built the house which he occupies in Sanitary equipment the necessary sanitary appliances were installed. He leased the building, however, to a tenant, who in turn leased a part of it to a subtenant. The latter removed some of the appliances to suit his convenience. The absence of the appliances was noted by the inspector, and he took action against Walters as the owner of the building. The court held that the owner is responsible in such cases, but in view of the circumstances recited the justice was not disposed to impose the penalty. He accordingly notified Walters that the plumbing which had been removed must be replaced within a month. This arrangement was satisfactory to the Commissioner of Labor.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT

New York, August 22.—Bradstreet's report on the business situation in the United States is very sanguine. Trade is very active, verging in fact towards marked unsettlement in the South for instance, and although the general trend is toward conservatism, a word of caution is not warranted. In a word, the report is very optimistic.

On the other hand, crop reports are more favorable, particularly as regards cotton, tobacco and corn, wheat exports are reported to be very active, and the general trend is toward conservatism. In a word, the report is very optimistic.

FOUR KILLED BY TRAIN

Deadly Road Crossing on Long Island (Special to The Times-Dispatch).

NEW YORK, August 22.—The deadly road crossing on the Long Island Railroad, which has been the scene of many fatal accidents, was the scene of a terrible tragedy to-day. Four persons were killed and many more injured when a passenger train crossed the road at a dangerous point.

The train, which was carrying a large number of passengers, was crossing the road at a point where the road was not properly marked. The train's engine struck a car, which was carrying four persons. The car was crushed and the four persons were killed.

The train was stopped and the passengers were evacuated. The road was closed for several hours while the bodies of the dead were removed and the injured were taken to the hospital.

The accident has caused a great deal of concern in the community. It is believed that the road crossing should be improved and that the train should be stopped before it reaches the crossing.

GOOD ROADS MEETING IS HELD AT INGLESIDE

WAVERLY, VA., August 22.—About 1,500 people assembled yesterday at Ingleside, Sussex County, ten miles from Waverly, to hear addresses by Governor Henry C. Stuart and others, upon good roads and better farming. The Governor's absence on account of the death of his friend, Mr. Palmer, of Abingdon, caused deep regret and great disappointment.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Good Roads Association of Newville Agricultural district, and was largely attended by the members of the Tidewater Automobile Association. More than sixty automobiles came up from Norfolk, Suffolk and Sussex and the adjoining counties. There were 150 automobiles in line by actual count.

Frank L. Birdsong called the meeting to order, and requested Judge J. West of Waverly, to preside. Judge West made an introductory address and extended a welcome to all visitors present from the cities and the other counties. He stated that the public was excited by the fact that three counties in the State that there was a sum of money sufficient to give every inhabitant thereof $75, that Sussex was enthusiastic about the subject of good roads, and he hoped his hearers to call upon their Congressman and the two Senators of Virginia to secure the passage of a bill by Congress making an appropriation of $10,000,000 annually for the building of good roads in the United States. The money to be apportioned among the several States in proportion to their population.

Judge George C. Cassell of Bedford, was then introduced and delivered a highly instructive and entertaining address on the subject of good roads and agriculture, interspersing his remarks with wit and humor, which frequently provoked the applause of his audience.

Mr. Leary, of Norfolk, followed Judge Cassell in a short address, in which he explained the attitude of the Tidewater Automobile Association toward the building of good roads in the Tidewater section of the State. He stated that the Tidewater Automobile Association was a body of men who were interested in the building of good roads in the Tidewater section of the State. ## CARBAJAL IN EL PASO: REMAINS IN RETIREMENT

Presence of Successor of Huerta in Mexican Town Is Not Explained.

EL PASO, TEXAS, August 22.—Francisco Carbajal, who succeeded General Huerta as Provisional President of Mexico, arrived here to-day from San Antonio, Texas. His presence was not explained, and he remained in retirement in a private residence. Reports received from Nogales, where a conference is in progress to settle the Sonora State revolution against the Carranza government, were not encouraging.

Constitutionalist attorneys here to-day issued a statement dealing with General Villa's recent stand against a military man becoming Provisional President of the republic, which apparently had been directed at General Carranza.

They quoted passages from the plan of Guadalupe, under which all Constitutional troops have operated, showing that Carranza was carrying out the program of revolution, and which called for him to remain chief executive until peace was restored and elections held.

Villa Crosses Line.

NOGALES, ARIZ., August 22.—General Villa crossed the Mexican border to-day, and was received by Governor Mayorena, of Sonora, preliminary to the conference of the contending Villa and Carranza factions.

General Obregon, representing Carranza, remained temporarily on the American side.

Previously the officers pay had been suspended against him, and he had been ordered to appear at the War Department.

KIPLING ARRESTED AS SPY

Identify Finally Established, He Is Set Free with Apologies.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 22.—Rudyard Kipling, who lives near Brighton on the south coast, was recently arrested as a suspected spy, while taking one of his regular country walks along the sea front.

He was entered into the files of the British intelligence department, which was being mistaken for a possible German spy, although it is proved to him, in a most convincing manner, that his constant watch was being kept.

Kipling was detained for some time, but was eventually released, and his identity was established.

Geoff Chatterton, brother of the more famous Kipling, also had a similar experience recently.

Tires at Before-War Prices

To-day we have our own men in Colombia, Singapore and Para. Those are the world's chief sources of rubber. So we are pretty well assured of a constant supply, and our pick of the best that's produced.

We were first on the ground. We were quickest in action. As a result we shall soon have in storage an almost record supply of this extra grade of rubber.

And we paid about June prices.

Now Inferior Grades Cost Double

About the only crude rubber available now for many makers is inferior. In ordinary times, the best tire makers refuse it. Much of it had been rejected. But that "off rubber" now sells for much more than we paid for the best.

The results are these:

Tire prices in general are far in advance of Goodyears. And many tire makers, short of supplies, will be forced to use second-grade rubber.

Be Careful Now

In Goodyears we pledge you the same-grade tire as always. And that grade won for Goodyears the top place in Tiredom—the largest sale in the world.

And, for the time being, our prices are the same as before the war. We shall try to keep them there.

We accept no excessive orders, but dealers will be kept supplied. And we charge them, until further notice, only ante-bellum prices.

That means that Goodyears—the best tires built—are selling way below other tires.

Goodyear Prices

It is Folly To-day to Pay More

30 x 3 Plain Tread	$11.70
30 x 3 1/2 Plain Tread	15.75
34 x 4 Plain Tread	24.35
36 x 4 1/2 Plain Tread	35.00
37 x 5 Plain Tread	41.95

Due to Quick Action

Early in August — when war began — the world's rubber markets seemed closed to us. Rubber prices doubled almost overnight.

These leading tires—built of extra-grade rubber in the same way as always—are selling to-day at June prices.

You will find to-day a very wide difference between most tire prices and Goodyears.

Men could see no way to pay for rubber abroad, and no way to bring it in. We, like others—in that panic—were forced to higher prices. But we have since gone back to prices we charged before the war, and this is how we did it.

We had men in London and Singapore when the war broke out. The larger part of the world's rubber supply comes through there. We cabled them to buy up the pick of the rubber. They bought—before the advance—1,500,000 pounds of the finest rubber there.

Nearly all this is now on the way to us. And it means practically all of the extra-grade rubber obtainable abroad.
